

Ontario Pharmacy

Special this Week
Floating Castile Soap
2-lb. Bar 35c

Rexall Remedies
Eastman Kodaks

Local Items

Miss Gladys Holland, of Burns, was the guest of Ruth Test on her return from St. Helens school, at Portland.

Mrs. Rader and daughter, Miss Irene, visited Boise last week.

Mrs. John Bervin was visiting friends at Cambridge last week.

Charles Atherton was in Boise last week with his daughter.

Mrs. A. J. Glover was calling on Ontario friends a few days this week. She is now living with her parents in Boise.

Miss Dorothy Taylor, of Idaho Falls, niece of Col. Taylor was a guest at his home several days this week. She attended school at Moscow and is on her way home.

George Smith, of Caldwell, died at the hospital Friday. He was riding a motor cycle and went off the bridge at Nyssa, the injuries proving fatal.

Judge Stearns fined a man fifty dollars for selling liquor to minors.

William Simon, manager of the Alexander store at Boise was a visitor here Friday with his brother Fred, who is in the Alexander store.

Prof. Hall and Nate Conklin made a trip to Jordan Valley a few days ago.

Marshall Odell was called to Boise Saturday.

Mrs. Albert Locket, of Jamieson, returned Saturday from a trip to Baker, where she visited her sister.

On Saturday morning Ben Crummett was receiving congratulations. It is a boy this time.

Dave Landis has moved his family to Ontario and will make his headquarters here. This is about the centre of his territory and the handiest point, besides the cost of living is cheaper here than at Boise. It is expected that many others will make this their headquarters in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moody were down from Vale over Sunday to visit with relatives and see the ball game.

J. R. Blackaby attended the bankers convention at Corvallis this week.

W. A. Carter, of Nyssa, was here Thursday looking after assessment work on desert claims.

LOCAL ITEMS

Mrs. Ben Brown and children of Vale visited friends in Ontario Saturday.

B. L. Milligan and wife returned from Walla Walla Saturday where they have been visiting their daughters.

H. B. Grauel returned from Portland Saturday where he attended the Grand Lodge and Grand Chapter of Masons.

W. F. Homan visited friends in Weiser Sunday.

H. H. Williams was in Weiser Sunday.

Mrs. Seguire returned a few days ago from Ironside, where she had been visiting for several weeks. Mr. Seguire went up after her, making the 134 miles in six and one half hours and using six gallons of gasoline. There was nine miles of new road between Vale and Jamieson.

Mrs. Anna Fox of Farmer City, Iowa, is here visiting with her brother J. R. Gregg and their mother. Mrs. F. M. Draper returned with her.

E. A. Goddard, the man who deals in wet goods, has the agency for Rainier beer for this section and is serving it over the bar. The beer is considered the nearest to Budweiser of any beer made and it is having quite a run here. Mr. Goddard is prepared to sell this in any quantity, cases of two dozen, large size, $3.50, with an allowance of 50 cents when case and bottles are returned, or three bottles for half a dollar. Have you tried it yet? (pd. adv.)

F. M. Ricker and wife, of Union, parents of Mrs. Morgan Carlile, are visiting relatives and friends here.

Miss Alice Piercy, the Art and Domestic Science teacher at St. Margarets hall, Boise, will organize a class in china painting and dress making here on Friday at the Moore hotel, where she will be from 2 to 5 P. M.

John L. Rand, the Baker attorney, was here this week, being interested in the suit at Vale between the Nevada Ditch Company and the Pacific Live Stock Company over the use of water. J. W. McCulloch was in Vale on the same case.

Mrs. Mollie Johnson, Cambridge, Idaho, is here this week visiting with her brother, G. W. Brown and also with Mrs. McCulloch and Mrs. Magill, old friends.

Local News

All bills Due and Payable to New York Store are payable to Reynolds Williams and Co. only.

The S and C club will meet at the home of Mrs. C. A. Keefe Thursday, June 26, 1913.

Mrs. Biggs who was operating recently is now at home doing nicely.

E. E. Hale and wife of Colorado Springs are here the guests of Mr. Hale's sister, Mrs. J. T. McNulty.

Are you a candidate in the Automobile Contest? If not, why not?

There was a very pretty wedding at the Methodist parsonage on Sunday afternoon at 1.30 when M. Bledsoe and Miss Anna M. Stone started on their matrimonial course.

Mr. Bledsoe is a newspaper man from Jackson County and Miss Strong has been a teacher in the public schools of Wallawa.

20 Jersey cows and heifers for sale, 10 milking, others yet to freshen. Call at Conklin's ranch 3 1/2 miles southwest of Ontario, inspect cows and output. E. B. Conklin.

Rev. Jones will hold Episcopal services at the Adventist church at 8 p. m.

Manager Markus of the Idaho-Oregon Light and Power Company was here. It is supposed the application of the Beaver River Power Co. for a franchise was the motive.

Joseph A. Ganong and a party of surveyors left here a few days ago for the Sumner lake section to do some work for the government and later will return and look over some surveys in this county.

Miss Clark, of Weiser, was the guest of Miss Hanson on Monday.

A marriage license was issued to Norman A. Howard and A. Burr at Oregon City on the 14th. They gave Ontario as their place of residence.

Mrs. I. H. Holland was here Monday with her daughter, who has just returned from school.

Charles H. Sommer has been given thirty days in jail for misbranding butter. It has been decided to give jail sentence in future for violations of the butter wrapper law.

Charley Anderson was in town on business Monday.

On Monday, John Draper returned from Vale.

Mrs. R. S. Rutherford returned from California, Monday.

Inez Weaver has returned from Pullman, Wash. where she attended college.

Amy Odell has gone to Mouth where she will attend the summer normal course.

Be sure to read the announcement, in the Argus of next week, of the Special Prize given in the Automobile Contest.

The Misses Pansy and Isabel Mallett arrived here from the Rose Carnival where they met on their way home. Isabel came from Odell, Pansy from Edmonton and returned together.

J. J. Burbridge left on a visit to Boise Monday.

Local News.

On Sunday morning the east-bound pony had a breakdown near Weiser and the Vale engine was called upon to bring it from there here.

C. McGonigall left for Vale Monday.

G. L. King was in Vale on business Monday.

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church, F. Von Eschenel of Willamette University, will deliver an address on "Education. Morning subject: 'The Universal Spread of the Gospel.'" Special music at both services in charge of Mrs. Byrd Scholtz Cotter.

We wish to call the attention of our friends and old customers that we are still doing business at the corner north of the Post Office. Reynolds, Williams and Co.

Miss Mable Orcutt of Washoe was operated on at the hospital Monday. Mrs. Orcutt has just returned home from the Boise hospital where she was operated on. Newell Orcutt and wife of Focatello are visiting at the home of his father H. B. Orcutt.

Miss Betsy Taylor has returned from Juntura, where she was the guest of Berr Woods' family.

Louis Hurtle received a very fine mountain lion skin this week, which his father secured in the Southern mountains.

Mrs. Elizabeth Neal of Boise, is visiting her aunt Mrs. Tonningson.

Donald McLean left this week for Stoneway, Island of Louis near Scotland, for a visit with his people.

Born to the wife, of J. J. Beaty a baby girl on the 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Stinker and daughter, of Ellinwood Kansas, are guests at the Rader home. Mrs. Rader is a sister of Mr. Stinker.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

Money to loan Improved irrigated farms. W. H. Doolittle Co.

Drayage orders taken at Moore Hotel John Landingham, residence phone 424.

Three lots for sale 2 blocks west of postoffice at a bargain. Inquire at Argus office.

Two furnished rooms for rent. Private family. E. Cope, tailor.

The ice cream served at the Ontario Bakery is always just right.

Barley for sale, $1.25 per hundred by C. E. Reese, Ontario.

If you appreciate a dish of rich, smooth ice cream try the Ontario Bakery.

The best of moving pictures at the Maze. Admission 10 cents.

Entire change of program every night at the Maze.

For Sale—Corn popper, cheap for cash or will trade. J. N. McManis, New Plymouth, Idaho.

Old papers at the Argus office—25 cents per hundred. Just what you need to line your cabins and place under the carpet.

$100 reward will be paid for the recovery of a sorrel gelding, six years old, branded XPS on left shoulder E M on left hip, two white hind feet, white front foot, stripe in forehead Ewen M. Lennau, Shaniko, Ore.

4th of July Necessities

Are You Ready for the Celebration?

If not now is the time to get ready. Don't wait

All Kinds of Ready-to-Wear

Ladies' one-piece Dresses, Shirt-waists and Skirts, Children's Dresses, Boys' Wash Suits, Boys' Blouses, Boys' Suits, Hats.

Shoes for the Whole Family

AT

LAMPKIN'S

Voting Contest

Until July 6 the ARGUS will issue

1000 Votes Free

with every dollar paid on subscription--new or old

GET BUSY NOW

COLUMBIA

Graphophones
Grafonolas

"No one thing will give so much pleasure, to so many people, for so long a time at so little cost."

DOUBLE DISC RECORDS

Bermele's Drug Store

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

The only Baking Powder made from
Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

Makes delicious home-baked foods of maximum quality at minimum cost. Makes home baking pleasant and profitable